The Fremont and Foster Dignity—Testimony of an Opponent—Card of Governor.

The San Francisco Chronicle contains a card from Gov. H. S. Foster, who is stumping California for Fillmore, in relation to the difficulty between him and Col. Fremont in the Capitol at Washington. The following contains the main features of the card:

It is not true that Col. Fremont pronounced on the floor of the Senate, anything which had fallen from me in the course of the debate to be false. And although it is true that he was dissatisfied with what I had said in opposition to his bill for the settlement of land titles in California, and requested a special personal interview with me on the subject, in the progress of which he used language which I deemed it my duty to resent, and I did recently, yet it is not true that Col. Fremont intimated on that occasion the least personal indignity on me. The only blow struck was one for which I am alone responsible, for before he had time to return the blow received by him of Senators Mangum and Clark intended and separated us. Col. Fremont's note to me afterwards was rather of an equivocal character. His friend, the present Governor of New Jersey, was the bearer of it, and it was not designated as a challenge to the field of honor; but it was at least possible that Mr. Price was in error on his part. I wrote to Col. Fremont that if my note of explanation did not prove satisfactory, I should go without delay to the city of Baltimore, and send him my acceptance from thence. At this stage of the affair, friends intervened, and the difficulty settled, as I have always considered, in a manner creditable to both parties. I cannot close without the expression my regret that any intimation should be made, in connection with this transaction, to hold me personally responsible for conduct not imputed to me by the public. I have endeavored to settle the matter by a public declaration of my position in the United States Senate. However opposed as yet I am to the measure advocated by him for settlement of the land titles in California, and however much I am opposed to his election to the Presidential office, I feel in justice bound to declare that I have never been disposed to complain seriously of his conduct in the affair referred to, and that there is nothing in it that should in the least degree lessen his claims to the respect and confidence of his political friends and supporters. What is said about my age, and gray hairs, &c., is simply ridiculous, as I was, in 1850, only forty years of age, and am yet sufficiently hale and vigorous to defend my person and maintain my rights and honor against my assailant.

September 9, 1856.

From the California Chronicle, Sept. 13.

Col. J. D. Stevenson, on the California Chronicle, Sept. 13.

The following note from Col. J. D. Stevenson, who has always been a still remains, a firm supporter of the Democratic party, was received by the Milwaukee press, and was published in the Milwaukee press, whose violence was at first unrequited, now vice with each other inflicting the veto. After the first feelings of disappointment had passed away, they could not but acknowledge the justice of the position taken by the message. We question the wisdom of the press which takes strong ultra grounds upon a measure one day, from which it totally recedes the next, even though interest be strong. Still we are always anxious to see errors confessed, so we are gratified to see a Milwaukee paper calling for the purpose of censuring the Governor, upon resolutions, "thanking the Executive for his action in the matter."—Portage City Independent.

Why can't the Republican press, at least, be just toward us in this matter? It is not true that the Milwaukee press "now vie with each other in extolling the veto." We are glad that the first bill was vetoed, though we still think some of the reasons assigned for the veto were very weak. We should have been glad, too, to have seen the last bill for the Eastern road vetoed, and a better set of Directors appointed.

It is not true, either, that any meeting was called here for the purpose of censuring the Governor, and that this meeting passed a vote of thanks to the Governor.

Two meetings were held on the subject of the veto, and for the purpose of expressing the views of our citizens, but in each of these meetings the Governor was spoken of in the most respectful terms. It was our especial aim in these meetings—since we had a voice in both of them—that no word of censure should go forth against the Governor. And whatever of violence may be charged against the Milwaukee press, on this subject, we plead not guilty to the accusation, and challenge our contemporaries to point to the proof from our columns—let justice be done, and let not all the press of the city be judged in a lump. The glorification meeting over the passage of the La Crosse bill returned thanks to the Governor, but the Independent makes no distinction between that and the former meeting. Is this fair and honorable?

DEAD.—The man whose limbs were man- gled by the car wheels running over him at the Fulton Station, last Wednesday, says the Janesville Free Press, was E. Thornton from Kentucky, Presiding Elder of a Methodist Conference of that State, who was going to Madison, to visit some relatives, and in attempting to get on the cars after they had started, both legs slipped on the rail, and was horribly mutilated. Medical assistance was immediately called in, and every effort made to get up sufficient re- action necessary for amputation, but with little avail, until the afternoon of the next day, when, after re-action occurring, Dr. Palmer of this city, assisted by Drs. Head and Slocum of Edgerton, at the urgent request of the sufferer and a large number of sympathizing friends, and being satisfied that it was the last resort, amputated the limbs, but he survived the operation but a short time. He exhibited much courage and self-possession, and retained his senses until all his sufferings, to the last moment.

HADLEY'S MASS MEETING at Union Grove, Racine Co. Thursday afternoon, consisted of fifty-two persons, all told, including the band, for which an extra car was chartered from Racine.

R. R. FESTIVAL.—A festival in honor of the location of the Milwaukee & Beloit Railroad, will take place at the "Martin House," in Vernon, Waukesha County, on the evening of the 23d inst. Martin "knows how," and the affair will be a pleasant one, we do not doubt.

DELEGATES TO THE DEM. COUNTY CONVENTION.—C. Baas, John Bray, and Stephen Hoff, were elected delegates to the Democratic County Convention, from the First Ward, yesterday.

Haynes, the murderer of Emma Smith, near Detroit, has been convicted of murder in the first degree, and will probably be sentenced to the State Prison for life, capital punishment having been abolished in Michigan.

The Madison Argus insists that Connecticut has gone Democratic, when there is a Republican majority of 7,000. It also says Ohio has 10,000 majority for the Republicans, and will go for Buck in November. A sheet that can make such statements, need not be particular what else it says.

The Election.

Neither of the parties here grow very loudly. The city is enveloped in fog, and so are the elections. We must wait for returns, to digest, and understand the result.

Ohio is safe; her majority is large enough to satisfy any Republican.

Pennsylvania is claimed by the Buchanan men. We do not yield it. We still believe it is with the Republicans.

Indiana is also claimed by the Buchanan men; whether justly or not is a matter of doubt. We will give it up when the figures prove it.

We give such returns as we suppose to be reliable, and call attention to them. The read- ings are examined and draw his own conclusions.

In regard to Indiana, they are not dis- couraging; but an analysis of these returns will exhibit certain facts, which no one will fail to note. These facts are:

—That in Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, where the Fillmore vote was strong, the Republi- cans lost largely; THAT WHERE THE FILL- MORE VOTE WAS WEAK, THE REPUBLICANS GAINED ENORMOUSLY.

This proves that Fillmoreites acted in con- cert with the Buchanans, not only sustaining them for State officers, but supporting, also directly or indirectly, their members of Con- gress. In Ohio, though only twenty thousand strong, they were enabled to defeat Gurley, Felt, Getaway, Emery, and possibly Watson.

Indians, they were as effective for mischief as they could be, beating the State ticket, if it shall prove to be beaten, and two, if not three Republican members of Congress. In Penn- sylvania they were more potent and consequen- tially more injurious in their action.

But there is an end to this mischievous action. In November, the Fillmore men will vote their own ticket, and this will leave the Republicans both in Indiana and Pennsylvania, in a decided majority. The latter have had to fight both these parties combined. (When this combin- ed vote is added to the vote of the Buchanan men, it is all only by a majority of 100,000.)

When separated, as they will be, Republican- ism will sweep these states in triumph and glo- riously.—Chicago Tribune of this morning.

Herbert the Murderer of Keating, Invited to leave California.

The San Francisco Bulletin gives the follow- ing account of the reception Herbert met with on his arrival in California. Though a prominent leader of the democratic party, the mark of Cain is upon him, and he is looked upon as a traitor to represent and associate with the people of California. The Bulletin says:

THE HOMICIDE HERBERT REQUESTED TO LEAVE THE STATE.

Yesterday, at 3 o'clock P. M., a committee of citizens who had been delegated for that purpose, waited upon P. T. Herbert, at the St. Nicholas Hotel, with a view of presenting to him the petition which had been signed for- ward to Washington. The Committee, through their chairman, Mr. J. H. Brown, addressed Herbert substantially as follows:

"We have been delegated by our fellow- citizen to wait upon you, and tender you this petition, which contains a petition of about two thousand persons, residents of this State, asking you to select some other locality for a residence. The duty which has been imposed on us is a painful one, and we deeply regret the necessity that has made our present mission to you, but, having been delegated with power to call upon you, and make known to you the wishes of our fellow citizens, we place this document in your possession as we have been in- structed."

Herbert took the package from the hand of Mr. Brown, while he stood trembling like an aspen leaf. He evidently at first supposed that the delegation was from the Vigilance Com- mittee, and probably felt somewhat like the crowd when he saw the famous Capt. Scott about to level his gun at him, and agreed to compromise the matter by coming down him- self at once. The homicide undoubtedly felt greatly relieved when he found it was only a petition of the respectable portion of the com- munity for him to leave the State. He felt certain that there were no numbers upon the petition, and he never did have more respect shown him by decent people, as was not very much mortified by the reception of the docu- ment.

The petition is in the following words:

To Hon. P. T. Herbert: We, the citizens of California, believing that you have forfeited your claims and rights as our Representative, and that, by your course at the National Cap- ital, you have deeply injured the fair fame of the State of California, both at home and abroad, would therefore, take this course to make known our wishes, and to respectfully request you that you would not again make California your residence.

CALIFORNIA, Aug. 25, 1856.

The homicide was the observed of all ob- servers yesterday, as he went about the streets. People looked at him as they would upon a loathsome monster, out of mere curiosity, and not from any respect or desire to make his acquaintance. He was in company with a lot of well known gamblers all day, from whom he probably meets a warm reception. It was rumored yesterday that he would address the Young Men's Democratic Anti-Vigilance Club here, but he never did.

Simon, the assassin of John M. Adams, was admitted, we did not ascertain whether he complied with the request or not.

N. P. WILLIS writes a letter saying that for the first time in his life (never having heretofore voted) he finds himself interested in politics, and going for Fremont on independent principles. He says of him:

"He is one of those rare men, sure to do well in all emergencies—not only with a brain full of common sense, but with that deep feel- ing of common sense which has regulated the pers- onal conduct of his life, and which has made him the most significant quality of Washington, among others, and which alone can insure true sailing and no capering, in these stormy times. Fremont is both lofty minded and wise, both incorruptible and sagacious; both fear- lessly independent and mostly deferential. In fact, it seems to me he was born for the crisis on which the country is now balancing, and that he has had, by the overruling providence of God, precisely the training and discipline to fit him for his work. That he will be our next President I have no doubt, but I mean to do all in my power, heretofore, to add my grain of sand to what I trust will be a mountain of a majority."

At the ball in Moscow on the night after the coronation ceremonies, the empress of Russia danced with the Turkish minister. Upon this strange night, the correspondent of the London Times breaks forth as follows:

"Shades of Mahomet, Suleiman the Magnifi- cent, and Selim the Terrible, what must you have thought when the ambassador of the Sub- lime Porte led the Czarina forth to the Pol- naise."

THE DOCTOR AND THE HOOPS.—The editor of the Medical and Surgical Journal comes out strongly in favor of hoops. He says nothing can be more appropriate during the heat of summer, than those light frames to raise the weight of the skirts from the hips and lower part of the back. He counsels the ladies against using any very airy sprites of them- selves, but to take cold, he says, ladies, beware of the whooping cough.—Exchange.

Music not only improves a man's tastes, but his morals. It gives him a taste for home that improves his habits wonderfully. The man who spends his evenings with a piano, is seldom seen in dram shops, and never with night brawls. We believe in music, and candidly think that one state will do as much towards driving rowdiness out of a neighborhood as four po- lice men and a bull-dog.

OCTOBER!

"Now it is October. The 'deep and crimson streak' which the poet speaks of, is disclosed by the dying leaves, everywhere in a few days, all the woodlands will present a 'sea of flowers'—of gold and crimson, and scarlet, and russet brown."

"Solenn, yet beautiful to view,
Month of my heart, thou dar'st me here,
With and I feel leaves to strew
Pale Summer's melancholy bier;
The mourning of thy winds I hear
As the red sunset dies afar,
And bars of purple clouds appear,
Obscuring every eastern star."

"I look to Nature, and behold
My life's dim emblem on thy round,
In hues of crimson and of gold—
The year's dead honors on the ground;
And sighing with the winds, I feel
While their low phans murmur by,
How much their sweeping tones reveal
Of life and human destiny."

"Alas for Time, and Death, and Care!
What gloom about our way they bring!
Like clouds in Autumn's airy air,
The burden of the Spring,
The dreams that each successive year
Seemed bathed in hues of brighter pride,
At last like withered leaves appear,
And sleep in darkness side by side."

The Democratic meeting at Beaver Dam, last Wednesday evening, was a perfect failure, nobody being present to address the orators, nobody being present to address the orators, nobody being present to address the orators.

MILWAUKEE.—C. J. Allen, the editor of the Waukesha Journal, in the course of his editor- ials, writes here at the State Fair, writes:

"Well, I think Milwaukee is bound to be something of a place! Look on the map, and you will find it is located at the mouth of Mil- waukee River, down on the shore of the pond that lies between the Badger Commonwealth and the State of Michigan. It has grown con- siderably since I saw it in 1839, and for the fu- ture, it has a prospect of a 'right smart' chance."

Some of the Buchanan press of the State are 'pitching into' Charles Burchard, a Republi- can member of the Assembly from Dodge county, and one of the investigation committee on the affairs of the State department, with a nearly good will. Mr. Burchard, we are sorry to learn, has compromised his own integrity, and forfeited the support of his political friends. His natural place is with the Bur- den (Burdett) democracy, and if they refuse to receive him, he must take care of himself.

We are glad to see the Republican press re- vudiate his conduct.

THE SPEECH OF MR. BOTTS.—A corre- spondent of the New Orleans Delta, writing from Richmond, Va., is much disturbed by the state of things in Virginia. Speaking of the recent speech of the Hon. John M. Botts, which has caused so much disturbance among the fire- eaters, he says:

"A demoralizing influence here, is already felt. Since its delivery, it is an uncom- mon thing to hear men in this city stand up boldly, and avow themselves in favor of Fremont. They make no secret of their preferences for him over Buchanan."
